Notes:

The races run in the order of - short, medium, long. Swimmers can be entered in 1, 2 or all races. The next race will start when the last swimmer from the previous race rounds the final can (approx.).

As long as a swimmer has made it around the course and is on the start line of the next race, they can compete in the following race, provided they are entered.

Swimmers could compete in the 300m, cross the finish line and walk right onto the start of the 600m, finish and walk to the start of the 900m.

Please note - races will not be held for someone that has entered multiple events.

Entering the short event and the long event is an option, with the middle race used as a gap/rest.
