

Competitive Surf Coach Course 2016

Date: Saturday 1st & Sunday 2nd October 2016

Time: Saturday: 10.00am – 5:00pm
Sunday: 9.00am – 4.00pm

Venue: Auckland (Location TBC)

Registrations Close: 5th September 2016

Course Overview

The Competitive Surf Coach course is designed to help coaches develop the necessary skills and knowledge to enable them to plan, implement and evaluate a structured sequence of developmental coaching sessions.

The target audience for this course is coaches of competitive athletes who are on the developmental pathway and are starting to engage in more competition.

Course Information

Course Duration: Two Days

Course Facilitators: Matt Sutton and Brad O'Leary

Who should attend: Coaches interested in wanting to gain knowledge and skills to be able to effectively coach athletes interested in elite surf sport competition.

Participant requirements: You must hold your Developing Surf Coach Award to attend this course.

To successfully complete the Competitive Surf Coach course, candidates need to attend the full two days of the course, participant in all its activities and successfully complete and submit the post course practical assessment.

Course Cost: The course cost is $150 per person. A travel subsidy will be provided for those coaches traveling outside of the Auckland region. The travel subsidy amount will be dependent on your travel location.

Participant Resources: Each participant must bring a pen, lunch, snacks and a water bottle. All other material will be provided.

Registrations: Registrations due to:
Belinda Slement, Member Development Manager
by 5th September 2016 via email.
Belinda.slement@surflifesaving.org.nz

