Below is an example list of activities that can be completed during the event. Each activity will have a points value associated to it. The amount of points for each activity will be based on distance from the starting point, duration and difficulty – these will be available on the day of the event.

Teams may complete as many or few activities in the given time frame. The order in which activities are completed in is at the discretion of the team. All teams will receive full info simultaneously.

If a team arrives at an activity to find another team already in the process of completing it, they can choose to wait until the activity is free, or to leave for another activity. If multiple teams want to wait for an activity, they will go in the order they arrived. If a team leaves to complete another activity, they forfeit their place in any other lines.
