Course Overview

The Instructors Award – Surf Lifeguard certifies that the holder has the basic skills and knowledge to be an instructor within their club. The qualification enables members to obtain relevant theory and practical skills about instruction and teaching to be utilised when training members. This course is a main component for you to fully achieve your instructor's award.

If you successfully complete this course all you require to do is place four (4) members through either their IRB or SLA award, then you will be awarded your Instructors Award in that field.
