Hawkes Bay IRB DEVELOPMENT Day #1

Date:	Sunday 22 August 2021
Venue:	Westshore SLSC
Address:	Alfred St, Westshore
Time:	9am-3pm
Cost:	Free candidates to bring own snacks and meals

COURSE OVERVIEW

This is a series of courses designed to assist members of certain skill level to achieve a Senior Lifeguard IRB Driver's Award.

This series will be a fun experience to further key learnings and develop skill levels across the IRB space including an examination opportunity.

Probationary IRB Examiners and IRB Instructors are invited to join as they will have the opportunity to upskill through mentoring from experienced IRB Examiners & Instructors.

Purpose:

The purpose of this development day is to provide local IRB development opportunities aimed at those who are at introductory to intermediate level, and to further their knowledge, experience and skills. This is day one in the series of development days.

To provide an opportunity for new/trainee IRB Drivers to:

1. Gain further driving hours under experienced instruction
2. Improve their skills with the assistance of experience instructors and examiners.
3. Enhance local instructional skill bases.

What to bring along:

- Full Wetsuit
- Lunch and snacks
- Water Bottle
- Towel
- Warm dry clothes
- Jacket
- Any medication which you require
- Workbook - Driver

Clubs will also need to provide their own equipment for their candidates, this includes but not limited to: IRB Hull, Engine, Fuel, Tools, and Fuel Bladder etc.
