

Patrol Captains Briefing

In it for life

Overview

The Patrol Captain is a hugely important role for the delivery and execution of our club and national lifeguarding delivery. Here in Otago/Southland we want to ensure that PC's are receiving the information and discussing the best practice for our unique part of the world.

Information

- Date 8 October 2021, 5.30pm
- Where St Clair Surf Lifesaving Club
- Delivered by Lifeguarding – Isaac Davies, First Aid - Cam Third, SAR - Max Corboy

All Patrol Captains

Topics covered

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1. Best Practice – A base standard | 2. Public Image, uniform, boat use, public interaction | 3. Training, briefings, radio use |
| 4. First Aid recap – Bleeding, defib in CPR | 5. SAR Callouts during patrol procedure. | 6. PPE and operation at different Covid levels |

The idea behind the PCs briefing is to keep the membership up to speed with the ever changing development of lifeguard content. While also making sure we are meeting the expectations outlined by our NSOPs and CSOPs.
