OVERVIEW

SLSNZ conducts many competitions that highlight the skills involved in rescue, resuscitation and first aid. Details of rookie lifesaving competition events are described in this manual and in separate manuals and bulletins which may be issued from time to time.

SLSNZ reserves the right to introduce equipment and gear to assist in the judging of competitor performance in lifesaving events.

AIM:

Rookie Champs is an opportunity for Rookie Life Guards to demonstrate their ability to work individually and as a team in performing skills associated with the Rookie Lifeguard program.

The Rookie Champs competition includes a number of tasks both physical and theory based which involve racing, rescue techniques, theory tests and first aid situations.

Rookie Champs are judged by an overall points based system which is further described in this manual, prizes will be awarded for the following;

- 1st Place - Overall Rookie Team (5 members)
- 2nd Place - Overall Rookie Team (5 members)
- 3rd Place - Overall Rookie Team (5 members)

- 1st Place – Individual Rookie (Female)
- 1st Place – Individual Rookie (Male)
- 2nd Place – Individual Rookie (Female)
- 2nd Place – Individual Rookie (Male)
- 3rd Place – Individual Rookie (Female)
- 3rd Place – Individual Rookie (Male)

EVENTS:

Individual Rookie points will be allocated for the below events

- Surf Race
- Theory Test
- Resuscitation
- Individual Rookie Scenario

Team points will be calculated as a sum of all points gained in each of the individual events in addition to a score from the following team events;

- Tube / Board Rescue Relay
- Rookie Teams Scenario

TIED SCORES:

In the event of equal points at the completion of the competition, the winner shall be decided by a count back system in the following order: Rookie Teams Scenario, Tube / Board Rescue Relay, Individual Rookie Scenario, Resuscitation, Surf Race, Theory.

If a winner cannot be determined by count back then a dead heat will be declared as provided in Section 2 – General Conditions of the SLSNZ Surf Sport Manual.

ROOKIE CHAMPIONSHIP FORMAT:

The Referee, taking into account the suitability of the area and the conditions, shall determine the order in which events are to be conducted.

SURF RACE:

The Surf Race shall be conducted as per the SLSNZ Competition Manual Section 3.2 and will be marshalled into individual male and female events. If numbers require, candidates may be broken into heats with points being allocated from the finals only.

Points shall be allocated to the top 10 competitors in the male and female events with 10 points being allocated to 1st place scaling down to one point for the competitor in 10th position. Where there are less than 10 competitors in an event the first competitor shall receive 10 points.

The maximum score a team can earn in this event is 46 points.

ie. 1st Male – 10 Points, 2nd Male – 9 points, 3rd Male - 8 Points, 1st Female - 10 points, 2nd Female – 9 Points)

THEORY TEST:

The theory section will consist of 20 questions multiple choice test, questions will relate to general surf lifesaving, patrol requirements, communication, basic first aid and surf awareness, based on questions drawn from any current Surf Lifeguard Award Training Manual and Rookie Lifeguard Manual relevant to the minimum qualifications required for the event.

Each team member will receive the same paper and each will individually complete the paper. A total time limit of 15 minutes will be allowed.

Individual and team points will be a direct reflection of the theory score.

The maximum points a team can earn in this event is 100 points (5 perfect scores)

RESCUSITATION

Candidates will be asked to complete the DRSABC procedure for an unconscious patient. Assessment will be made on the competency of the candidate in completing each step and their confidence in doing so.

The total points a candidate can score in this section is 20 points / 100 points per team.

INDIVIDUAL ROOKIE SCENARIO

The Individual Rookie Scenario will be centred on a First Aid and Emergency Care per Module 6 of the Rookie Lifeguard Award – all candidates will complete the individual rookie scenario and be assessed on the competency and confidence of the candidate in providing necessary care.

The total points a candidate can score in this section is 20 points / 100 points per team.

TUBE / BOARD RESCUE RELAY:

The Tube / Board Rescue Relay will comprise of the following roles, clubs may choose their individual team positions for this event.

- No.1 – Patient (Tube Rescue)
- No.2 – Rescue Tube Swimmer
- No.3 – Rescue Assistant
- No.4 - Patient (Board Rescue)
- No.5 – Board Rescuer

Team members shall be marked with a marker pen as to their corresponding number. Any team caught with a member competing in events in conflict with that number shall be disqualified from that event.

The Tube Rescue section of this event will be run as per Event 3.5, Rescue Tube Rescue Race (2 person) as detailed in the Surf Sports Competition Manual (9th Edition, V4) with the deletion of sections (k), (s) and (t).

Upon receiving the 'assistance required' signal from the Rescue Tube Swimmer, the Rescue Assistant may run/swim from the start line to assist the Rescue Tube Swimmer with a two-person drag of the patient across the finish line.

Once all three candidates (Tube Rescue Swimmer, Patient & Rescue Assistant) cross the finish line the Board Rescue Patient may leave the start line.

The Paddle Board Rescue section of this event will be run as per Event 7.9, Paddle Board Rescue Race as detailed in the Surf Sports Competition Manual (9th Edition, V4).

Points shall be allocated to the top 10 teams with 100 points being allocated to 1st place scaling down to 10 points for the competitor in 10th position.

Teams not finishing in the top 10 will score 0 for this section. Where there are less than 10 teams in a patrol team's competition, the first team shall still be allocated 100 points.

Points from this event do not count towards the individual rookie awards

ROOKIE TEAMS SCENARIO

The Rookie Teams Scenario will involve all team members and will require teamwork to complete. The Scenario will be patrol based and may incorporate first aid, rescues, radios and signals as per their rookie lifeguard workbooks. A total of 80 points may be earned based on the observations of the team and their competency and confidence in responding to situations that may occur.

Points from this event do not count towards the individual rookie awards
