

Date: 24 September 2023

To: Officials, Admin Team, Event Crew, Water Crew

From: Matt Cairns - National Event Manager

Subject: SLSNZ Pool Rescue Championships 2023

We are now less than a week away from the Surf Life Saving New Zealand Pool Rescue Championships. With entries now closed, we're excited to share that this year's event boasts an impressive 431 participants, marking a significant increase from last year's 340!

This update provides additional information to what you have received to date and makes a few requests for information.

Information Request

Please send the following information to Matt Cairns matt.cairns@surflifesaving.org.nz by midday Tuesday (26th Sept).

1. Vehicle Registration Number. I am trying to get free parking for all our volunteers.
2. Any dietary requirements you have.
3. RSVP for a volunteer's dinner and drinks on Saturday, 7.30pm, 60 Matipo Road Mairangi Bay.
4. For those driving more than 50 kms out of region, you are entitled to a volunteer travel subsidy. Please let me know where you are travelling from, and I'll confirm the subsidy.
5. Any other information you feel it is important for me to know.

Volunteer Teams

We will have five volunteer teams operating together to make a great event. The team leaders outlined below will form the Event Management Committee. This group will meet first thing each morning to discuss the event as a whole. The team leaders will then meet with each team (times and locations in Appendix 1.) to discuss your teams duties and key information for the day.

TeamReach

Going forward, all official communications with clubs will be conducted through the TeamReach app. We may also use this platform to communicate any changes to event volunteers. Join our group using the code: 2023NZPoolRescue.

EventEntries

Draws are available on Waves Results, allowing you to view entries (subject to change due to scratchings).

Event Rules

The competition will be conducted in accordance with the rules outlined in the Pool Rescue Competition Manual \(August 2023\).

Printed copies of the manual will be provided for all officials on Friday morning.

Additionally, clubs and members entering this event are bound by the following rules:

- SLSNZ Constitution
- SLSNZ Regulations
- SLSNZ Code of Conduct (Please note that the Event Management Committee reserve the right to exclude competitors, parents, managers, and supporters for unsportsmanlike behaviour)
- Drug Free Sport New Zealand
- SLSNZ Sport Policies

Event Programme

The event programme, including entry and heat numbers, is attached as Appendix 1 to this document. Event management will keep everyone updated on any programme changes via Team Reach before and during the event.

Catering

SLSNZ will provide the following catering during the event.

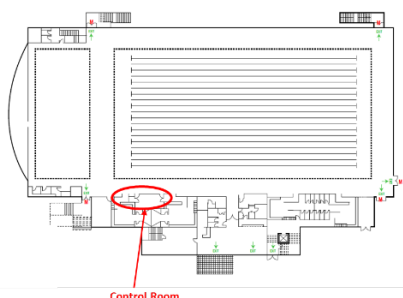

- Friday: Breakfast snack, Morning Tea, Lunch, Afternoon Tea
- Saturday: Breakfast snack, Morning Tea, Lunch, Afternoon Tea
- Saturday evening volunteers drinks and dinner at 7.30pm (Please RSVP if you wish to attend)
- Sunday: Breakfast snack, Morning Tea, Lunch

Please remember to bring a water bottle to email any dietary requirements.

Meeting Locations

Admin Team meetings will be in the Control Room.

Ground Floor

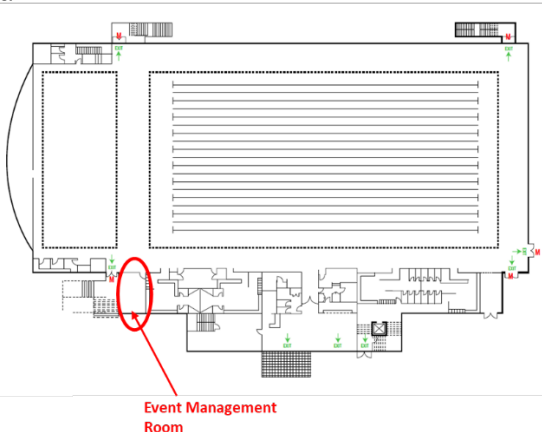

Officials meetings will be in the Swimming New Zealand Board Room this year with more space available. This room is located on level one at the dive pool end of the grandstand.

Level 1 (Grandstand)

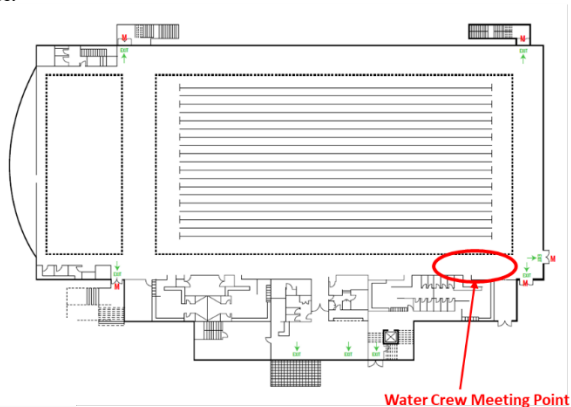

Event Experience Team (including commentary) meetings will be in the Event Management Room

Ground Floor

The Water Crew will meet poolside, outside the equipment storage room.
