

Surf Official Level 1 - Facilitator Application Form

Surf Life Saving New Zealand (SLSNZ) is committed to member education and enabling surf officials to achieve recognised qualifications within New Zealand.

If your application is successful, you will be accredited as a Surf Official Level 1 Facilitator. This gives you the appropriate accreditation to deliver the 2-hour face to face practical Surf Official Level 1 Course.

The Surf Official Level 1 Course is targeted at club members interested in getting started in surf officiating including competitors, or previous competitors, parents, supporters or existing volunteer 'officials' with no formal training/award.

Training Requirements

Candidates are required to complete the Surf Official Level 1 pre-learning online modules, consisting of 3 modules. They then attend the practical 2-hour course/workshop delivered by an accredited facilitator. Then complete two days practical experience. Practical experience must be signed off by an accredited Surf Official Assessor.
